

I truly hope that Senate Bill 509 passes against this petition so that organizations cannot interrupt valued family time. I work a lot, so when I am at home I do not want to be bothered by unwanted solicitations. I guarantee they will not get business from me if they do. Many people feel this way. If I need a service I'll find it, the service does not need to find me!

Sincerely,
Zach Geisel